In preparing this Program Review, keep the college mission, strategic plan CTAs in mind as a reminder that Program Review is to ensure that all programs are aligned with the institutional mission.

Evergreen Valley College’s Mission: With student learning as our primary focus, Evergreen Valley College’s mission is to empower students to expand their human potential and to succeed in a global, multicultural society. DEPARTMENT/PROGRAM NAME: Ethnic Studies
PREPARED BY: Arturo Villarreal
LAST REVIEW: Unknown
CURRENT YEAR: 2014-2015
AREA DEAN: Mark Gonzalez, SSHAPE

SUMMARY OF THE DEPARTMENT/PROGRAM
Provide a brief summary of the department/program including brief history (impetus for department/program initiation if applicable, years of existence, progress made or not made over time, any other major factors that affected the program and current status)

The Ethnic Studies Department of Evergreen Valley College has offered Ethnic Studies classes since the inception of the school in 1975. Our department offers students an introduction into an understanding of the various racial and ethnic minorities and ethnic relations in the US.

Relevant areas of discussion include the

Through our course offerings, students learn how to analyze issues and form their own opinions regarding many of the greatest issues of our time, deliver critiques, advocate and critically debate ideas in social and political settings, appreciate and respect diverse viewpoints, work productively in task-oriented groups, and engage in rewarding interpersonal relationships. In our classrooms we strive to create a learning environment that is supportive and accessible to all students regardless of race, ethnicity, culture, gender, language, disability, sexual orientation or religion, and to ensure every student has the opportunity to succeed in developing her/his personal academic and career potential. The WSCH/FTE for Ethnic Studies ranks at or near the top of all programs offered at EVC, far, far exceeding the EVC average. Ethnic Studies is one of the very few disciplines at EVC that loads at 50-100 students per class, with long waiting lists for almost every class, almost every semester. A full time Ethnic Studies instructor will teach five classes each semester, with 50 or more students in each class. She or he will interact with over 300 students in each semester.
Given the challenging economic situation at EVC, we fully understand that our campus community faces a series of increased demands with fewer resources. The Ethnic Studies Department has continued to address the many challenges without substantial losses to our program. Despite the fact that there is only one full time faculty, the Ethnic Studies Department will continue to meet current and future challenges, redeploying resources and creating new ones, to add to the overall strength of our program. We strive to create new partnerships with San Jose City College, CSU San Jose, the UC system, local high schools, and our community.

The Department’s courses fulfill transfer requirements to CSU, UC, and California’s private colleges and universities. Summary of Demographic Data

* Women have higher enrollment than male students.
* On the average 65% of Ethnic Studies students are between the ages of 18-22.
* On the average 56% are full time and 44% are part time.
* African American Students range between 4%-5% of enrolled Ethnic Studies students.
* Asian American students range between 42% - 45% of enrolled Ethnic Studies students.
* Latina/o students range between 35%-37% of enrolled Ethnic Studies students.
* White students range between 7%-8% of enrolled Ethnic Studies students.
* Retention rates across all ethnicities average 92%.
* Success rates across all ethnicities average 75%.

7. Identify enrollment patterns of the department/program in the last 6 years and analyze the pattern.

Ethnic Studies 010 is a course which has traditionally been co-taught by two or more instructors. Because it is the introductory course, the idea is to expose the students to a variety of ethnic minorities groups and their experiences. As a result, there are at least two instructors with an expertise in two or more ethnic groups to expose the students to not only a variety of ethnic groups but a variety of teachers with different styles and with an expertise in different areas. Three or four courses are offered each semester. Two or three courses are offered enduring the day and one course in the evening. One course is offered every intersession and one course is offered every summer session. The courses offered during prime time (10:45) usually always fill. The 7:45 am class and the evening class usually does not fill but has a good enough enrollment for it not to be dropped.

Eth- 020 has been offering 2 sections each semester.

Eth-030 has been offering three sections each semester. One class is offered every summer and one during Intersession as well. Every class fills and there is always a waiting list.

Eth-035 has been offering 1 section each semester.

Eth-040 has been offering two sections each semester.

Eth-042 has been offering one section each semester.

8. Identify department/program productivity.

This department produces extraordinary WSCH/FTEF for the college. Few, if any, departments are as productive. A full time Ethnic Studies instructor will teach five classes with 55 students per class, thus interacting with 275 students. This is more than double the number of students faced by many other full-time instructors in a typical semester at EVC. This places a special responsibility upon the Ethnic Studies Department, and we are proud to have it. Only a few single-section classes have fallen below the target 525 mark. Overall, the college benefits greatly from the productive, very highly-enrolled Ethnic Studies courses offered at EVC.

9. Identify student success rate and patterns within the department/program, paying particular attention to our college’s target groups.

The data indicates that all ethnic, gender, and age groups are experiencing success. However, there is room for improvement. African American and other students from historically disadvantaged backgrounds are a population that warrants more attention regarding their overall success at EVC.

10. If the program utilizes advisory boards and/or professional organizations, describe their roles

Although the department actively engages with other groups, colleagues, and community members, we do not currently utilize advisory boards.

PART B: Curriculum

1. Identify all courses offered in the program and describe how the courses offered in the program meet the needs of the students and the relevant discipline(s).

These are the Ethnic Studies courses offered at EVC:

- Eth 010 Introduction to Ethnic Studies (meets CSU GE Area D3, C2)
- Eth 11: Reel Studies (meets CSU GE Area D, D3)
- Eth 20: African American Culture (meets CSU GE area D3,C2)
- Eth 30: Chicana/o Culture (meets CSU GE Area D3, C2)

- Eth 40: Vietnamese Culture (meets CSU GE D3,C3)
- Eth 42: Asian American Culture (meets CSU GE D3,C2)
2. State how the program has remained current in the discipline(s).

The Ethnic Studies Program faculty will continue to address revisions to the Ethnic Studies Program.

The Ethnic Studies Program is currently considering the development of the following courses to address areas of growing interest:

1. New Course – Introduction to Latinas/os in the U.S.

Curriculum updating: Ethnic Studies courses are currently being updated to accommodate for improved Student Learning Outcome evaluation.

3. All course outlines in this program should be reviewed and, if appropriate, revised every six years. If this has not occurred, please list the courses and present a plan for completing the process. (curriculum recency)

   All Ethnic Studies courses have been updated in the last six years.

4. Identify and describe innovative pedagogy your department/program developed/offered to maximize student learning and success. How did they impact student learning and success?

   The members of the Ethnic Studies Department faculty have agreed several years ago that most Ethnic Studies courses contain essay examinations as the primary method of assessment. As a result of this requirement, the faculty is considering requiring eligibility to English 104 as the prerequisite for most Ethnic Studies courses. Based upon the student success rate of these courses, the prerequisite may be applied to other courses as well.

   The members of the Ethnic Studies Department encourage the use of technology and group work in all Ethnic Studies courses when appropriate to the course content and/or classroom facility.

5. Discuss plans for future curricular development and/or program (degrees & certificates included) modification. Use the Curriculum mapping form to lay out your plan.

   - Develop a General Studies AA Degree with emphasis in Ethnic Studies.
   - Developed a new course in Ethnic Studies.

6. Describe how your program is articulated with the High School Districts, CCOC (if applicable), and/or other four year institutions. (Include articulation agreements, common course numbering etc.)
All Ethnic Studies courses are transfer-level baccalaureate courses that have been articulated for CSU GE. Several courses are also required or elective options for the BA in Ethnic Studies at most local and national universities.

7. If external accreditation or certification is required, please state the certifying agency and status of the program.

There is no external accreditation for the program.

PART C: Student Outcomes

1. On the course level, list all the courses that have current student learning outcomes (included in the course outline) and provide link to the course outlines for review purpose. Provide a plan and timeline to include student outcomes for the courses that do not have one.

All Ethnic Studies courses possess student learning outcomes. The SLOs are updated regularly.

   Assessment mechanisms are being identified at the course and section level through examinations, both midterm and final. These assessments have been conducted in ETH 10, 11, 30, 40 and 42. Overall the students met the majority of learning outcomes. In some SLO’s, faculty need to conduct item analysis on questions to determine if modifying the question or eliminating the question is the most effective intervention.

4. Since the last program review, provide a summary of SLO assessment results at the course and program level.

   Ethnic studies has not completed a program review using SLO’s before.

5. Discuss implemented improvement plans to course for program as a result of SLO assessment

   Faculty are reviewing assessment questions to determine if they need modification to better measure student attainment of the outcomes or if they should be eliminated. In particular, questions associated with SLOs 1, 2 & 6 for Ethnic 010, SLO 1 for ethnic studies 11, and SLOs 1-4 in ethnic 30. The question analysis and reassessment will occur in fall 2015, with results documented on the EVC assessment matrix.

   Ethnic Studies 40 and 42 have all SLOs assessed, with minimal if any suggested interventions. Students achieved all SLOs at a level deemed appropriate by area faculty.

   Ethnic studies 20 & 35 and ANTH 63 and 90 will undergo assessment planning and implementation during the next program review cycle. These courses will have all SLOs assessed before 2018 and will document summarized results and interventions on the EVC assessment matrices and report during the next program review cycle.

6. Discuss additional resources needed as a result of SLO assessment

   No additional resources requested related to assessment results.

2. Identify current schedule for tenure review, regular faculty evaluation, adjunct faculty evaluation, and classified staff evaluation.

   Arturo Villarreal last evaluated in fall 2014.

Evaluation of Non–tenured Faculty: The Ethnic Studies Department has not hired a full time faculty member since 1997. We look forward to doing so. When we do so, the department will follow the guidelines described in Article 20 of the Faculty Association Collective Bargaining Agreement (FACBA).

The non –tenured faculty member is evaluated for four years in order to give the faculty member an opportunity to demonstrate that they meet the performance criteria established by a Tenure Review committee which is composed of the following members: the Discipline administrator and faculty. The tenure evaluation process consists of:

- Tenure Review committee in which faculty play a central role
A pre-evaluation plan
A Growth and Development Plan
Observations of performance
Student evaluations
Progress review conferences
Improvement plan, when applicable
Summary Evaluation Report and recommendation prepared by the TRC
Post evaluation conference
Self- Evaluation

After the four-year process the TRC will make its recommendation to the Board of Trustees to grant tenure to the faculty member.

At the beginning of the non-tenured faculty member’s first semester of employment with the District a Tenure Review Committee is formed according to the selection procedure stated in section 20.2 of the FACBA. The non-tenured faculty committee is composed of a faculty member selected from the appropriate subject area by the division administrator; the non-tenured member shall select the second faculty member. This must be done by the eighth week of the first semester of the first year. The Academic Senate must approve the tenured faculty members serving on TRC committees.

During this process the division administrator appoints the non-tenured faculty a mentor in the discipline. The mentor shall be available for assistance, discussions, and support related to the successful performance of new non-tenured faculty.

In the first three years of service the non-tenured faculty must be informed by the administrator of the rights and responsibilities concerning the evaluation process. A Pre-evaluation Conference is convened by the end of the ninth week in the first semester and by the end of the fifth week in the third and fifth semesters. The non-tenured faculty member’s classes are then visited and the TRC members conduct student’s evaluations.

The non-tenured faculty member is responsible for designing a Growth and Development Plan according to FACBA 20.8.2. The Progress Review Conference is convened by the end of the fourteenth week of the first, third and fifth semesters to review the information from the TRC members and student evaluations as well as the Growth and Development Plan. A Post-Evaluation Conference is then convened by the fourth week of the non-tenured faculty member’s second, fourth, and sixth semesters to review and finalize the faculty member’s Growth and Development Plan.

In the fourth year, the Pre-Evaluation, Progress review Evaluation and the Post-Evaluation conferences are all completed by the end of the non-tenured faculty member’s seventh semester. The TRC chairperson drafts a Summary Evaluation Report based on classroom observations, administrator and student evaluations, job description and the non-tenured faculty member’s Growth and Development Plan. The TRC will proceed with tenure recommendation and submitted to the College President for approval. The Board of Trustees makes the final decision.

Evaluation of Tenured Faculty:
Tenured faculty are informed each term, by their respective deans, to have one of their classes visited by a faculty member who will conduct the student evaluation process. The student evaluations are summarized and kept in file in the dean’s office. If the dean perceives a problem, a conference will be convened by the dean with the faculty member, otherwise, a regular conference with the faculty member and the dean takes place once every three years to review student evaluations, issues and concerns related to the faculty member’s curriculum and teaching methods.

Evaluation of Adjunct faculty:

Adjunct faculty is evaluated according to article 19 of the Faculty Association Collective Bargaining Agreement (FACBA). An evaluation committee is formed and shall consist of the division dean and a peer full- time faculty member. At least one of the members of the Committee shall observe the performance of the adjunct faculty member. The evaluation process is as follows:

- The adjunct faculty shall be informed in advance of the evaluation process
- Observations should be scheduled in advance and the adjunct faculty must consent.
- Student evaluations will be conducted at the end of the observation and collected by the committee member
- The adjunct faculty is provided with a written summary of the evaluations by the division dean in charge.
- A post evaluation conference shall be held with the adjunct faculty member and the dean at the conclusion of the evaluation process.

Classified Staff Evaluation:

Classified staff is evaluated in accordance with the schedule set forth in Article 16.2 of the CSEA contract.

Probationary New-Hire Classified Employees
Probationary new-hire classified employees are evaluated three times during the first year (twelve months) of employment. The first two evaluations take place after the third and sixth months of employment, and a final evaluation after eleven months, using the full progress report form.

Probationary Promotional Classified Employees
Classified employees promoted to a higher classification (pursuant to Article 15.4 of the CSEA contract) serve a probationary period of at least six months. Probationary promotional classified employees are evaluated at the end of the third and fifth months of employment in the new classification.

Permanent Classified Employees
After the probationary period, all classified employees are evaluated annually, on the employee’s anniversary date of hire.

3. Describe the departmental orientation process (or mentoring) for new full-time and adjunct faculty and staff (please include student workers such as tutors and aides).

Orientation process for new faculty:
In addition to the orientation process given by the District, the department has a mentoring program for the new full-time faculty. During the first semester of service the new faculty member is appointed a mentor in the same discipline. The mentor serves as a guide and supporting person, assisting the new faculty in school procedures and deadlines. The mentor also advises the new faculty concerning curriculum development, college committees and tenure review.

The Teaching and Learning Center provides an orientation for all new faculty on the history of the college and shared governance. The center offers new faculty the opportunity to attend Friday Academies. The academy provides opportunities and discussions on teaching pedagogies and campus services. It offers a variety of workshops on education, service learning and has an extensive Faculty Resource center.

Orientation process for new adjunct:

The adjunct faculty is introduced to the campus by the division dean. The division dean assigns a faculty mentor to the adjunct faculty. The mentor familiarizes the adjunct with school procedures; teaching assignments, class syllabus and college deadlines. The Ethnic Studies department has open doors policy in which adjunct faculty are encouraged to review the course syllabi, attend department meetings and ask for advice. The adjunct faculty is encouraged to attend the Teaching and Learning orientation in order to become familiar with the history of the campus, shared governance and the opportunity to network with other faculty.

PART E: Facilities, Equipment, Materials and Maintenance

1. Identify facilities allocated to the program (including the facilities often used by the department/program)
   Discuss the quality and accessibility of the facilities, equipment, equipment maintenance, and materials available to the program.
   Faculty and staff can use the Instructional Equipment request form and process here as part of the information)
   Identify facility needs and its rationale.

   The Ethnic Studies department teaches most of its classes in Montgomery Hall and in the Cedro Building. The classroom is designated a Smart classroom. The quality of the equipment in the classroom is adequate. The noise from air vents in C 105 is marginal, leading to some complaints. This matter should be resolved. The desks are too large for the room, a result of the retrofit to Cedro that was completed last year. As a result, we have 49 desks crammed into a room that loads at 55 students. This is not a long term problem, owing to some student attrition. Yet, this does make it almost impossible for any Ethnic Studies instructor to add students.

2. Describe the use and currency of technology used to enhance the department/program. Identify projected needs and rationale.
The computers used in Montgomery Hall and in the Cedro Building are adequate. The technology in Montgomery Hall has been upgraded so that the Ethnic Studies department has developed a curriculum that meets the needs of the twenty-first century digital student.

3. If applicable, describe the support the program receives from industry. If the support is not adequate, what is necessary to improve that support?

There is no industry support. The Ethnic Studies Department is not a CTE program.

PART F: Future Needs

1. What faculty positions will be needed in the next six years in order to maintain or build the department?

The Ethnic Studies department could benefit from the hiring of another full-time Ethnic Studies instructor, in order to meet the needs of the community and the student population. Currently there is only one full time Ethnic Studies instructor. Over a dozen Ethnic Studies classes are being offered for spring 2014, so as a result, at the current time, there is a great need, for another full-time Ethnic Studies instructor.

2. What staff positions will be needed in the next six years in order to maintain or build the department? (Staff, facilities, equipment and/or supplies) will be needed in the next six years? Provide rationale.

There is no need for a staff position.

3. Identify budget allocated for the department/program through the division budget (fund 10). Discuss its adequacy and needs if applicable along with rationale. Identify any external (fund 17) funding the department/program receives and describe its primary use.

Considering the Department’s amazing productivity (WSCH/FTES), the Ethnic Studies faculty believe more sections of Ethnic Studies should be offered to meet student demand.

Additional money should be allocated for attendance of professional conferences to maintain staff development and currency in the field.

Additional money should be allocated for visiting speakers and student field-trips.

4. What equipment will be needed in the next six years in order to maintain or build the department? Provide specific purpose and rationale.

Classrooms with smaller tables and/or two-person tables/desks to promote cooperative learning and a different pedagogy than the traditional single-seat desk classrooms.
5. What facilities will be needed in the next six years in order to maintain or build the department? Provide specific purpose and rationale.

Bigger classrooms to maintain and perhaps increase the incredibly high WSCH/FTEF productivity of the department

PART G: Additional Information

1. Describe any other pertinent information about the program that these questions did not address?

PART H: Annual Assessment (Program Faculty and PR Committee)

The Ethnic Studies Department is interested in learning more about the students taking Ethnic Studies classes, and exploring options to improve student success. The faculty will continue to review student evaluations as well as student success data. The faculty will continue to work together to update program SLOs, update courses, and improve all existing methods of assessment.
