Women in Comedy:

Women Who Make America Vol. 2

Track the rise of women in the world of comedy, from 1970s sitcoms to the groundbreaking women of the 1980s comedy clubs. Contemporary comics, including Chelsea Handler, Mo'Nique, Sarah Silverman and Ellen DeGeneres, talk about where women started in comedy and where they are determined to go. (This program contains mature content. Viewer discretion is advised.)

Royal Opera House:

The Nutcracker

The Nutcracker, with its score by Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky, has become the perfect Christmas holiday ballet. It takes place during a Christmas party where the toy maker Drosselmeyer gives a young girl, Clara, a nutcracker doll. When everyone has gone to bed, Clara comes downstairs to find her doll and suddenly gets involved in a great adventure.
