

FAQs

What does SEAASE stand for?

It stands for Southeast AsiAn American Student Excellence program.

How do you pronounce SEAASE?

SEAASE is said like the word “sees”.

Who can be a member in SEAASE?

Any registered student at EVC can be member in the program.

How do I maintain my memberships and the benefits offered in the program?

Please contact the Program Coordinator to learn details on maintaining membership and benefits.

*Phone: (408) 223-6712 | Email: evcseaase@evc.edu | Office: EVC Campus, LE 211
Open Mondays – Fridays 8a – 5p (closed for lunch)*

How and when can I apply?

You can apply at any time. You can download an application from our website or pick one up in LE 211 and meet the Program Coordinator. Turn in completed applications to evcseaase@evc.edu or drop it off in LE 211.

Is there a deadline to apply?

There is no deadline to apply! You can apply to the program at any time.

Where can I find the schedule for workshops?

You can always find the most up-to-date workshop schedule on our website.

Are the workshops free and who can attend them?

All our workshops are free! No cost to attend them. Any EVC student can go to any workshop that they may be interested in.

Do I need to register/sign up for the workshops?

Yes, please sign up for the workshops so that we can get an accurate number of students who will be attending. You can sign up for workshops using this link: SEAASE Workshop Registration or email evcseaase@evc.edu. Please note that workshops may be cancelled under different circumstances.