Breakout Session

A. CurricuNet

In this workshop the participants will use the new CurricuNet software and hopefully produce one the following documents:

LE-228

1. New course outline
2. Revision of an existing course outline

It is highly recommended that the participants bring their reference material in order to create their final finished product.

Facilitators: Abdie Tabrizi and Vicki Brewster

B. Instructional Program Learning Outcome Assessment

This is a hands on working session, where faculty teaching within an instructional program or certificate will populate or generate a program assessment matrix. Participants will also use the session time to plan program assessment activities for the 15/16 academic year. Please bring a flash drive and program assessment data results to the session.

LE-204

Facilitators: Lynette Apen, Bob Brown & SLO Sub-Committee

C. Program Review	This session will provide a brief update on accreditation and program review. During the program review session, facilitators will cover best practices in program review and timelines/processes for EVC’s program review. Facilitator: VP Keith Aytch and Felicia Mesa	LE-231
D. NBCLearn in Moodle CMS: Teaching and Learning Resources	NBC Learn is a rich, dynamic, and innovative resource that provides thousands of historic news reports, current events stories, original content, primary source documents, and other digital media specifically designed to help teach and engage students of all levels and abilities. In this session, participants will learn: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Easy, affordable, and effective way to infuse technology and digital media into 21st century 2. How to integrate NBC Learn videos with Moodle CMS Facilitators: Nasreen Rahim and Cynthia Harrison (NBCLearn)	LE-232
E. Adjunct Survival Tips	This presentation will help familiarize adjunct faculty with the resources available in the Adjunct Center. Facilitators: Uyen Mai and Steven Graham	R7-141
F. International Education	In this workshop, you will learn about the vision of a Bangladeshi school for advancing students to colleges throughout the world. Through mutual exchange of information, the presenters will try to help you understand how to work together to make EVC a reality for all international students, with a focus on Bangladeshi students. Facilitators: Liz Tyrell, Safia Ghazi Rahman and Sameer Rahman	SC-102
G. Creating Work-Life Balance	The conflicting demands of work and home can create stress, and zap the time and energy needed to get everything done. In this workshop, participants will find answers that will allow them to be more effective and more satisfied with both their home and work lives. Competing demands will be identified, and an assessment of central life goals will contribute to an understanding of how to achieve an improved work-life balance. Facilitator: Marybeth Weider	Gullo II

H. Civility Roundtable Discussion	The purpose of the discussion is both to enumerate issues of civility and to propose solutions, reflecting especially on their further discussion and application at the division or departmental level. Group(s) will be provided any of the twelve questions for discussion, such as: “How can we balance principles of civility and a tradition of free speech? How do all constituencies benefit from an atmosphere of civility? What makes communication uncivil and who determines what that is?” Facilitators: Sam Ho, Judy Rookstool Cam Martian & Chancellor Rita Cepeda	Mishra Community
I. Health Counseling Department at EVC	This workshop will discuss the Raising Early Awareness and Creating Hope (REACH) and Momentum for Health Program, which is specifically geared towards teaching the community about the early warning signs related to severe mental illnesses such as psychosis, as well as how we provide behavioral health services through an early intervention model. Facilitators: Sarina Campos and Michelle Schweon	SC-101
J. Equity Series on Foster Youth: Supporting Educational Success	Did you know that there is a foster youth program on campus, the YESS Program? In this session you will be briefed on the child welfare system, where foster youth come from, myths and facts, as well as resources available to youth on our campus. The goal of this workshop is to help develop a successful support system for foster youth on campus – with the ultimate goal being that more foster youth go to college and more foster youth stay in college. Facilitators: Tina Iniguez and The Silicon Valley Children’s Fund	SC-103
K. MyClassText Learning Management System (LMS)	MyClassText is a LMS that will be used shortly by over 20 instructors from a wide variety of courses at both EVC and SJCC. Using MyClassText the participating faculty will collectively save their students over $250,000 in textbook costs. The purpose of this workshop is to inform the participating faculty about the most recent developments and progress of the beta testing program. Facilitator: Rob Knight	S-150
