As one of the most culturally varied student bodies within the California Community College system, we take pride in fostering an environment that celebrates and embraces our rich tapestry of backgrounds and perspectives.

At Evergreen Valley College, our core values of opportunity, equity, and social justice are at the heart of everything we do. Our comprehensive curriculum is designed to provide career-focused and academic pathways, ensuring that students have the skills and knowledge necessary to thrive in their chosen fields.

Our state-of-the-art learning and student services spaces further demonstrate our dedication to student success. With solid support from the community, we have transformed our campus to enhance student satisfaction, preparation, and achievement. Notable additions include the cutting-edge Automotive Technology Building, the multi-disciplinary MS3 Building encompassing Math, Science, and Social Sciences, a modern Fitness Center, and the esteemed Veterans Freedom Center. Additionally, our sports complex now features futsal and pickleball courts, catering to the athletic pursuits of our students and community members. And our commitment to progress continues, with ongoing projects underway, including the construction of a new Student Services Complex, a Language Arts Building, and a General Education Building all opening in the next year.

Evergreen Valley College has earned recognition as a national leader in several areas, including transfer success, graduate earnings, and a diverse faculty. We take pride in providing an inclusive and supportive environment where students can thrive academically, socially, and personally.

One of the most colorful parts of commencement is the academic procession – the opening part of the time-honored and traditional ceremonies. The procession includes all of the participants in the exercise: the graduating class, faculty, governing board and participating guests.

The graduating class wears black gowns. The tassel of the cap is worn on the right and changed to the left immediately after receiving the degree of Associate of Arts or Associate of Science.

The college faculty, staff and administrators, along with the governing board and program guests, wear counts indicative of their academic ranks.

Cap and Gown

The heritage of the cap and gown with the colorful spectacle of the academic array dates back to the twelfth century among the first universities in Europe. Although there have been many changes in design and color, each individual gown with its rank is symbolic of achievement in a special field.

The faculty gowns are divided into three groups dependent upon the high college degree earned by the wearer.

The bachelor’s gown is made of black worsted material with long, pointed sleeves and the front is closed at the neck.

The master’s gown is either of black silk or wool and has a long, closed sleeve with an arc of a circle appearing near the bottom and a slit at the elbow of the arm.

The doctorate gown is black silk or wool with full, round sleeves with three velvet stripes. The velvet color is usually black but may be the same color as the edges of the hood.

The traditional black mortarboard-style cap is worn for all degrees, the only difference being the tassel. For holders of the bachelor’s or master’s degrees, it is usually black, but occasionally it is the color of the velvet of the hood. The doctorate tassel is gold.

Academic Regalia

The academic regalia is set off by the most distinctive of all insignia—the hood. The hood is made of a black material to match the gown and varies in length according to the degree: bachelor’s is three feet, master’s is three and a half feet, and doctorate, four feet.

Each hood has a velvet edge of varying widths according to the degree, two inches, three inches and five inches, respectively. The edging is carried around to the front of the neck to form a neckband. The color of this velvet trim indicates the field or department of learning in which the degree was earned. All hoods have a sild lining of the official color or colors of the college or university conferring the degree.

The following is a list of colors for designated groups at EVC (and sometimes their stoles):

AFFIRM	Multi-colored Kente cloth	LGBTQ+	Rainbow achievement stole
ASG	Red and Blue	OASSIS	Multi-colored traditional sarape
ASPIRE	Red	Veteran	Blue or green silk stole
Enlace	Blue	Country logos on stoles	Represent a students’ cultural identity
First Year Experience	Orange
Honors	Gold Braids

2024 COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS SPEAKER & BIO

Len Ramirez, KPIX 5 – CBS News Bay Area Journalist

San Jose native Len Ramirez, a three-time Emmy Award-winning reporter, returns to San Jose City and Evergreen Valley Colleges, where he was a reporter and photojournalist for the City College Times.

Ramirez has been covering Santa Clara County for CBS News Bay Area since 1989. Before he arrived at KPIX 5, Len was a reporter for KOMO Channel 4 in Seattle, Washington, KSBW Channel 8 in Salinas, and KMST Channel 46 in Monterey.

In 2017, Ramirez was inducted into the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences Northern California Chapter Silver Circle for his notable contributions to the broadcasting industry over his 25-plus-year career.

He has received three Best News Story awards from the Radio and Television News Directors Association and the Ruben Salazar Journalism Award from the California Chicano News Media Association.

During his career, Len has covered many major national and international stories, including the Loma Prieta and Mexico City earthquakes, the Los Angeles riots, and the OJ Simpson murder case, as well as many other fires, floods, disasters, and civil rights causes. In 2020, he earned one of his Emmys after being shot by a police rubber bullet while reporting live on the air from the middle of the George Floyd protest in San Jose.

As a student at SJCC in 1981, he earned statewide recognition for the Best on the Spot Feature Photo from the Journalism Association of Community Colleges. In 2012, Len was inducted into the East Side Union High School District Hall of Fame as a James Lick High School graduate.

Ramirez Graduated from San Jose State University with a degree in journalism in 1983.

Ramirez also has a history of community and volunteer work. In 2013, the Hispanic Foundation of Silicon Valley honored the Ramirez family with the La Familia Award.

He lives in San Jose with his wife, Julie, and their three adult children.
