COMMUNITY FOCUSED

In mid-April EVC hosted a CAPS registration and community day that brought close to 1000 people to campus. Students registered for Fall and community members experienced BBQ and ice cream, a Kids Zone, over 40 community booths. Partners included the Sharks, Quakes, Silver Creek BBQ, Paleta Paneta and elected officials.

The Alliance of Black Educators invited middle school students to campus for a tour and talk of campus. We had over 150 middle schoolers on campus.

In early May, EVC hosted a Wellness Fair and a Cinco de Mayo at our Festival de la Comunidad, featuring lowriders, community members, food and Aztec Dance Group Calpulli Ocelochiuaatl.

CELEBRATIONS

As graduation season took hold, EVC celebrated its Bridge-to-STEM, Enlace and Umoja-Affirm programs with end-of-year celebrations. The Bridge-to-STEM was a partnership with the Hispanic Foundation of Silicon Valley and the Black Excellence event was hosted at Adobe Headquarters.

The four-year grant ended for Aspire+Plus following its end-of-year celebration. The program over the past few years welcomed 450 members and hosted well over 2000 workshops. In addition, 20 students will graduate in May.

STUDENT SUCCESS

THE ARTS

The EVC Art Department hosted its annual Juried Art exhibit (running through May 14), as well as its artist alley. An incredible 44 art students will graduate with a degree.

EVC Music hosted its final monthly ensemble of the season, which featured first time piano players and its talented music ensemble.

ASG put on a "Hawks Got Talent," competition where students competed for prizes. It featured dancing, singing and guitar playing.
